

Akaroa Dolphins | Harbour Nature Experience

'Bonjour' Akaroa! Or Amour Akaroa!

A harbour cruise and dolphin experience in New Zealand famous French Settlement of Akaroa. Nestled in an ancient volcano and now surrounded by hidden caves, secret bays, breathtaking scenery and home to the world's Hector's Dolphin.

Departing daily at 8.30am from Central Christchurch this Experience is one not to be missed.

We will make our way over the famous Canterbury plains before climbing over the Banks Peninsula into the Ancient Volcanic harbour. Where we will stop for a breathtaking photo opportunity, one your camera can't do justice for!

Once we arrive in Akaroa you will have some free time to wander at leisure through the township. You may wish to sample the local food and have lunch before joining the Akaroa Dolphins Cruise.

The Cruise departs at 12:45pm and is a very generous 2 hour in length adventure. Once on-board the Akaroa Dolphins Cruise, you will be welcomed in the most Kiwi of setting, with complimentary award-winning wine, beer, organic juice, soft drinks and fresh home baking, all included in the cruise price.

During the tour we will spend time interacting with the world's unique Hector's Dolphin, found only in New Zealand. The Hector's Dolphin are considered to be the most inquisitive and cheeky of all dolphins found In New Zealand, they are sure to put on an experience you won't forget!

It wouldn't be a French settlement without cheese! So on the way out of Akaroa we make a stop at Barry Bay Cheese, the last Cheese factory of the region. Here you can sample award winning New Zealand Cheeses and learn a little more about cheese making in the region before we continue the journey back to the City of Opportunity, Christchurch.

Our journey back to Christchurch departs Akaroa at 3.45pm.

Out of respect to the Hector Dolphins and to maintain an up close and personal feel this tour operates in limited numbers to ensure everyone gets the best experience, so book today!
